Costs that you pay to others

Costs related to the product (product costs)

Product costs

Do you invest in investment funds? In that case you pay, in addition to the advisory costs and transaction costs, the costs that the investment fund charges for the management of that fund. These costs are not paid separately, but are already included by the fund manager in the price of the relevant profile fund. These costs consist of:

- ► Management fees.
- ▶ Transaction costs within the investment fund itself.

- Administration fees, service charges, marketing expenses and other similar expenses.
- Swing pricing. These are fees that the fund manager can charge when investors enter and exit the fund. Also known as subscription and redemption fee or anti-dilution levy.
- Extra expenses such as the accountancy fee, legal fees and other operating expenses.
- ► Tax. Tax is payable on most foreign investment funds. The best-known tax is the 'taxe d'abonnement' if you invest in Luxembourg-domiciled investment funds. At ABN AMRO you can invest in all sorts of investment funds of different providers. Many of these investment funds are Luxembourg-domiciled investment funds.

More information can be found under the heading 'Inzicht in uw beleggingskosten' (Insight in your investment costs) at abnamromeespierson.nl/tarievenbeleggen

The ongoing charges are set out in the Key Investor Information Document (KIID) of the investment fund. You can find the KIID at abnamromeespierson.nl/fondsen in the product information of the investment funds.
